

Contens

Introduction	5
Martina Pavlicová
Life is Laughter through Tears	7
Lucie Uhlíková
Such a Sad Read: The Image of a Jew in Moravian Folklore	15
Juraj Hamar
Erotic as well as Comic Topics (in the Folksong)	24
Milan Tesář
Reasons for Crying and Laughing in Sušil's Moravian Folk Songs	44
Jiří Traxler
The Meeting of Sadness and Joy in the Early 19th Century Folklore Records by Jan Jeník from Bratřice	49
Lubomír Tyllner
Funeral Ceremony Songs of the South Bohemian Blata in the Second Half of the 20th Century	60
Helena Bretfeldová
The Ambivalence of Joy and Sorrow at Life's Crossroads and their Reflection in Folk Songs Lyrics from the Moravian Wallachia and Hornácko Regions	66
Janyl Jusubjan
Laughter and Crying in Kyrgyz Songs	78
Petr Dorůžka
From a Hungarian Suicidal Song to the Totalitarian Abuse of Folklore	88
Irena Příbylová
The Black-Faced Minstrels	94
Jan Sobotka
A Dark Night, a Cold Night: the Phraseology of Blues	105

Tereza Vrbová
Flamenco: Intense Emotions	113
Jiří Moravčík
Kinshasa: A Reckless Joyful Dance amidst Despair	120
Pavel Malovič
Laughter as a Life Aphrodisiac and a Booster of Productivity	125
The List of Authors	130